NASTL has adopted an Affiliate Membership Program to provide public and private entities and individuals who share common interests in the NASTL's objectives with an opportunity to communicate and cooperate with NASTL members.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Speaking opportunities at NASTL conferences
- Conference displays and recognition
- Collaborating on white papers and best practices
- Membership recognition on the association website
- Business opportunity
- Collaborating on leader development and professional, technical staff training
- Opportunities for professional dialogue and collaboration on issues of national importance. Such as:
  - ~ Endangered Species Act
  - ~ Oil & Gas Development
  - ~ Natural Resource Management
  - ~ Commercial Development

Desired Outcomes of the Affiliate Membership Program

- Expand diversity of NASTL membership and audiences
- Enhance distributions of NASTL outputs to new, relevant markets
- Augment opportunities to develop, share & evaluate information regarding land, water and other resource management policies and practices.
- Assist member states to maximize earnings & preserve the assets of educational trusts.
