Formula for Determining Distribution Amounts
Alaska DNR	On July 1 of each year, the Department of Revenue Commissioner determines the monthly average market value of the fund for the previous five fiscal years preceding the previous fiscal year. The Legislature may appropriate not more than 5% of this amount.
Alaska MTH	Mental Health Distributions are determined by the board. Available funding combines income from the lands and 4.25% of 4 year average of the Mental Health Trust Fund (~$398,479,000). Approximately $20-30 Million/ year is granted or spent on beneficiaries.
Arizona	6.9% of five-year average earnings
Arkansas	Not applicable
California
Colorado	50% of gross school trust revenues plus 100% of Permanent Fund interest and dividends
Idaho	Not available - formula varies by district
Louisiana	Unknown
Minnesota	Average Daily Membership
Mississippi
Montana	= Gross distributable revenues - administrative costs - school facility revenues - amounts to earnings reserve - percentages to the permanent fund
New Mexico	No Response
Nevada	No Response
North Dakota	For the biennium during which this amendment takes effect, distributions from the perpetual trust funds must be the greater of the amount distributed in the preceding biennium or ten percent of the five-year average value of trust assets, excluding the value of lands and minerals. Thereafter, biennial distributions from the perpetual trust funds must be ten percent of the five-year average value of trust assets, excluding the value of lands and minerals. The average value of trust assets is determined by using the assets' ending value for the fiscal year that ends one year before the beginning of the biennium and the assets' ending value for the four preceding fiscal years. Equal amounts must be distributed during each year of the biennium.
Oklahoma	The interest and income of the permanent school fund, the net income from the leasing of public lands which have been or may be granted by the United States to the State for the use and benefit of the common schools, together with any revenues derived from taxes authorized to be levied for such purposes, and any other sums which may be added thereto by law, shall be used and applied each year for the benefit of the common schools of the State, and shall be, for this purpose, apportioned among and between all the several common school districts of the State in proportion to the school population of the several districts
Oregon	3.5% of 3-year "rolling average" of December 31 st balance of Common School Fund investment portfolio

WSLCA/NASTL - FY19 State Data Report

South Dakota	All earnings are distributed based on enrollment - equal amounts per student
Texas	Statutory Base Allotment per Student, sources being both Local Property Taxes and the State
Utah	[prior year distribution x 1 + (CPI) + (student enrollment growth)] + 12-quarter permanent fund average x 0.04
Washington	DNR fee limit set by revised code of Washington 79.64; actual percentage set by Board of Natural Resources. Distribution to Trust beneficiaries are currently: Federally Granted Lands 69%, State Forest Transfer Lands 75%, State Forest Purchase Lands 50%, Beds of Navigable Waters 50%, and Second Class Tidelands and Shorelands 50%.
Wisconsin
Wyoming	Legislatively determined

Authorized Recreation
Alaska DNR	Day use, commercial and non-commercial activities
Alaska MHT	Day use, non-commercial, non-motorized allowed without permit or charge
Arizona	Hiking, biking, camping for 14 days per year, etc. Hunting and fishing are regulated by the Arizona Game and Fish Department.
Arkansas	N/A
California
Colorado	All trust lands are only open to the public via lease; all recreation uses allowed on a parcel are specified in individual leases; hunting & fishing are primary uses; +/- 585,000 ac are leased to Colorado Parks & Wildlife for public recreation access; +/- 300,000 ac are leased for private recreation uses
Idaho	Hunting, Fishing, Camping, Hiking, Off-Highway Vehcles, Multiple Use
Louisiana	Hunting, fishing, camp sites, house boats
Minnesota	Minnesota's school trust lands are open to the public for all outdoor recreation activities.
Mississippi
Montana	If legally accessible, non-motorized access permissible (unless posted otherwise) with State recreational access permit ($10.00) for non-hunting and fishing activities. State hunting and fishing conservation license covers all hunting and fishing access during the designated seasons. Open public roads (county, state or federally administered) crossing through state trustlands may be open for motorized travel as posted or depicted as open on public interagency maps.
New Mexico	Hunting and site specific camping is allowed on almost all 9 million acres of state trust land through an easement agreement with the New Mexico department of game and fish. Non-hunting related recreation such as hiking, bouldering, climbing, birdwatching and other activities are allowed through a recreational access permit which costs $35 annually for New Mexico families. Free recreational permits were given to New Mexico 5 th graders in 2019.
Nevada	Passive recreation/pass through
North Dakota	Hiking, Bird watching, Hunting, Fishing, Berry Picking (for personal consumption only).
Oklahoma	None
Oregon	All lawfully allowed public use access activities – hunting, fishing, camping, firewood collection (with permit), canoeing, etc.
South Dakota	Hunting, fishing, camping, and hiking are allowable secondary uses. Land is walk-in only for hunting and fishing
Texas	No open recreating on trust land. Surface Lessee can recreate by Agreement only.
Utah	All types of recreation allowed on trust lands not closed for development or other use.

Total Active Oil/Gas Wells
Alaska DNR	0	In 1978 the Alaska legislature converted all School Trust Lands to General State Lands and in return said that the School Trust will receive ½ of 1% of all revenues generated on General State Lands. Thus, there really are no oil/gas wells on what was once considered School Trust Lands. The School Trust does not hold land any longer, they just receive the revenues of the ½ of 1%.
